

POET'S CORNER

"SPRING"

Browny fields, warming in the strengthening sun
Drowsy and fat, from winter's slumber
Shrinking snow drifts melting by one
Expense the withered grasses, Aitken's tale.
In leafless trees the robin sings the world
Giving his cherry call at breezy morn
The sun favoured the day, for it may build his nest
The while to us his joy, on early hours.

Released from winter's bondage and closed doors
The aged and weary ones may venture forth
To all in sunny corners and watch at play
The children, romping thro' the springtime day.

Freeing the rivers from their ice-bound shores
That they may flow gladdest to the sea
And children's stirs to life once more
Expect the coming of the spring in the lee.

Oh! Liberator, from all dark and doubt,
Thy golden message spreading o'er the land
Filling the hearts of man with greater hope
Turning this flower to life with gentle hand.

Thy works are not the Master's hand
A silent message from on high
That death to man is but a winter's sleep
To wake eternal in the sky.

—Mamie J. Kirkpatrick.

23 Cottages Entered At Fenelon Falls Within The Past Few Days Says Chief

"We know of at least 23 cottages that have been broken into in the last few days and this is the first time in over 17 years that cottages have been broken into in this town," said the statement of Chief of Police B. H. Gordon of Fenelon Falls, which intervened by a newspaper representative.

"These break-ins show the same method of value being stolen, but in practically every case the fishing tackle was taken out of the boxes and the rest of the contents were left in place," said Gordon.

"The door, if it has a Yale lock, is broken, but the window is gained through a window and should the door be peddled the lock is broken."

Chief Gordon very willingly took the Post reporter to several of the cottages where evidence of the break-ins was evident.

Strange Cases Of Personality Changes After Fever Strikes

London, Eng. (RUP) — Strange cases of personality changes in people who have survived typhoid fever are quoted in the latest issue of the British Medical Journal.

One man spent night after night in a chair because he was afraid that if he got out of it he would be taken to a hospital. Another man, who had been a stockbroker, became a beggar.

Dr. G. H. Williams, of the Royal Free Hospital, London, has collected a number of such cases. He says that the changes are usually temporary, but in some cases they are permanent.

A teacher who had been in the trade for several years developed a "manic" phase. He was obsessed with the idea that if he handled a razor again he might not be able to let it go.

See Scarcity Heavy Horses

Regina, March 28. (PNS)—Regina's scarcity of heavy horses in Saskatchewan has been pointed out in Regina.

The forecast was made by C. D. Danforth of Fairlight, whose clients are entered in the Regina Winter Fair this week.

Danforth's remark that a scarcity of heavy horses in the province was evidenced by several prominent breeders.

The breeders say there is no demand for sires in the province and he is getting anxious to sell.

And they add that the biggest demand these days is from Ontario, where an increased interest in heavy horse breeding has been shown.

Most of the Quebec Department of Agriculture, J. R. Mehan.

All claims for sires have to be made within the shortest possible time and the importer has to be a resident from which may be obtained.

"DDT" Being Used Against Tree Insects

Using the new discovery in available "DDT" the Canadian Department of Lands and Forests this summer will conduct a $300,000 campaign against the serious pest.

The mixture will be sprayed over the forests from planes, a procedure which has proved to be successful under favorable conditions. Crews for the planes will be furnished by the RCAF and the centers of the attack will be the Niagara area where 50,000 acres will be sprayed.

Experimental spraying was conducted in Algonquin Park last year and proved to be effective against insect outbreaks in the early stages. Insects have also proved that some types of insects are not serious.

Mission Band Give Concert At Kirkfield

Kirkfield, (HUP)—The St. John's Mission Band recently presented a very fine Easter program in the Presbyterian Church. The choir loft was artistically decorated and Mrs. A. R. McLean acted as chairman for the following program:

Hymn, by the Mission Band, "He Is Not Here"; "Welcome" by Ernest Grant; Prayers, "The Easter Message" by Margaret Toel and Betty Brundage; "Easter Kites" by Elizabeth Nichols, Joyce Peffer, Marion and Audrey Osborn; Hymn, "The Minute Till" by Jack Anderson; "His Cross" by Alice Burston, Florence McGrover, Jean Hamilton and Betty Brundage; "The Love Is Wonderful" by Margaret Toel and Peggy McCallum; "It Is Finished," Dolly Hamilton, Louise Toel, Margaret Hughes and Lois Percival; Benediction, "Acquainted With Grief," by Gerald Burston; Mission Choruses, by the Mission Band; Play, "Lord I Believe"; Benediction, "True Part" by Donald McLean; Hymn by the congregation No. 189; Prayer by Rev. A. S. McLean.

Following the program the presentation of the Junior Membership Certificates were made by Mrs. W. W. Finney, President of the church.

Mrs. Finney stated how pleased she was to have the pleasure of presenting four certificates, but was sorry not to have the pleasure of presenting more. She stated that she was sorry that she was not able to see the Mission Band making such progress, under the efficient leadership of Miss Margaret Davey, Miss Blanche Bailey, Miss Betty Finney, because the Mission Band work is a tribute to the work of the W.M.F. and the boys and girls of today will be the men and women of tomorrow.

The certificates were then presented to: Alice Burston, Alberta Preston, Margaret Wilson, Peggy McCallum.

Rev. Mr. McLean spoke words of encouragement to the members and leaders and congratulated them on the splendid program presented. Miss Margaret Davey presented gifts to five members for their regular attendance from Christmas until Easter; which included: Joyce Peffer, Elizabeth Nichols, Blanche Bailey, Marion and Audrey Osborn.

Mrs. Finney invited all to move into the Sunday School room where refreshments were served by the W.M.F. A long table was spread with appetizing delicacies, dainties, eggs, biscuits, rolls, cookies, tea, served cafeteria style. A very pleasant evening was spent.

EASTER SERVICES
A very impressive Easter Service was held in the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening.

Beautiful Easter flowers adorned the church, the gift of Mrs. Mary McKenna of Winnipeg, in memory of her husband, the late J. A. McKenna, and a bouquet from the Ladies' Aid Society.

Special music was rendered by the choir. Mrs. James Peen sang an appropriate solo and the choir sang an anthem, "He Was Raised to the Cross".

Rev. Mr. McLean delivered a very fine Easter message.

Following the service the flowers were given to children of the congregation.

Snow Fences Down, Roads Are Patched

Down, Roads Are Patched

Little Britain, (PNS)—The snow fences on the various county roads in this district have been removed for another season, under the supervision of Mr. Lawrence Heatie and staff of men.

The roads in this district which were completely blocked to motor traffic for some time, are now bare and quite dry. Patching and repair work is at present the order of the day.

LITTLE SYRUP

The maple syrup industry in this community received a severe setback this spring, owing to the lack of frost and the exceptionally mild weather which prevailed after the sap began to flow. The yield was very light in comparison with previous years and the average farmer did not have much surplus.

(BRITISH UNITED PRESS)

German forces are said to have been driven into the northern quarter of Berlin. Berlin is a ruined city and unofficial reports say roughly seventy percent of the German capital is in possession of the Russians.

Russians Near Brandenburg
Russian troops reportedly have driven into the area surrounding Brandenburg. 23 miles west of Berlin. Other Red Army tank columns have reached the north western fringe of the city.

RUN ARTILLERY WILL SHOOT SHIRKERS

BERLIN PICTURES SHOW UTER WASTE
British newspapers are carrying first pictures of the Berlin battle. They are scenes of utter destruction and demolition. Block upon block lies in ruins, with not a human being in sight.

To the south, Russian and American forces are reported to have joined up. Those reports say the Russians are now linked with the American First and the Ninth.

REDS—MAYKES MEET
A dispatch from Moscow goes so far as to say that the Red Army and First Army corps are solidly welded south of Berlin.

8th ARMY FIGHTS BATTLE
In Italy—British Eighth Army troops are fighting a bitter battle on the outskirts of Ferrara. The Nazis are making a suicide stand to save at least one Po River crossing for their routed forces.

Victory Loan Salesmen Report Excellent Start

Stress need for unity of purpose in achieving goal set in this fourth victory loan campaign.

Reports emanating from the local offices of the National War Finance Committee on the results of the first day's campaign are highly encouraging.

Every quarter are reporting an enthusiastic response.

However, a word of caution also prevailed as members of the committee improved upon their past performance.

It is interesting to note the remarks of Ralph A. Kirk, Undersecretary of the National War Finance Committee, when speaking at a Victory Loan Rally in Montreal last night.

Mr. Kirk stated that Canada is still a great loser to the world and that if the had had a chance she would stand at the North American continent and Canada would be the first state to feel the blow.

From this it is evident that money must be readily available to keep our common enemies, the Japanese, as well as the Germans in their hands during the last stages of the war.

It is understood that Bell Telephone employees are doing exceedingly well.
